

WpWpWp User Story

Week 6:

1. User can create different kind of events.
2. User can search for an event by specifying conditions
3. User can join organizations, then he or she would be able to access the basic information of other users in this organization and the events related to this organization.
4. User can join an event when they have an invitation
5. After join an event, user can access basic event information